- 6. This Writ of Continuing Garnishment is effective for one year after the date it was served on you, or for 120 calendar days if another writ of continuing garnishment is served on you. Within 7 business days after the close of each pay period occurring within the term of continuing garnishment, you must:
 - answer the attached Interrogatories;
 - serve a copy of your Answers to Interrogatories on the judgment creditor, or if they have one, their attorney or licensed paralegal practitioner; the judgment debtor and on any other person shown by your records to have an interest in the property.
- 7. What to do with the property:
 - DO NOT SEND THE PROPERTY TO THE COURT. You must withhold from the judgment debtor the amount shown in your Answers to Interrogatories. Hold the property for 21 calendar days after you serve the judgment debtor.
 - Wait 21 days.

- If you receive a Reply and Request for Hearing within 21 days, hold the property until you receive further orders from the court directing you how to proceed.
- If you do not receive a Reply and Request for Hearing within 21 days, deliver the property to the judgment creditor or, if they have one, their attorney or licensed paralegal practitioner.
- 8. If you do not take these steps, the court may hold you responsible for the value of the property you should have withheld.
- 9. You may deliver to the judgment debtor any property greater than you are required to withhold.
- 10. Multiple Writs of Garnishment for the same judgment debtor may be served on you, but only one Writ of Garnishment may be in effect at one time. You must satisfy the writs in the order in which they are served. When an earlier Writ of Garnishment expires or is satisfied, you must then satisfy the next writ.

However, a Writ of Continuing Garnishment in favor of the Office of Recovery Services or the Department of Workforce Services takes precedence over other writs and must be satisfied first.

A Writ of Continuing Garnishment in favor of the Office of Recovery Services or the Department of Workforce Services continues until fully satisfied, placing earlier writs on hold. These instructions do not apply to writs or orders entered by other courts or governmental agencies.
